Secretary's staff meeting.

Gordon Loud came to see me.

I attended the swearing-in, in the Secretary's office, of Stanley Andrews as Administrator of the Technical Cooperation Administration (Point IV).

Chip Bohlen came in to ask for comments on the paper on utilization of civilian manpower.

Tracy Barnes, Deputy Director of the Psychological Strategy Board, came in and talked with me generally on PSB matters.

Was briefed by Joe Phillips, prior to attending a Psychological Strategy Board luncheon in General Smith's office.

Arthur Roseborough came in about a visa case, and I had him talk with Bob Alexander over in the Visa Division.

Ulius Amoss stopped by to see me.

Had a call from Count George Potocki, former Polish Ambassador here.

With Chip and Avis Bohlen, E. and I attended the diplomatic reception at the newly-decorated White House.

Attended a men's dinner given by Baron Silvercruys in honor of Mr. Spaak.
